

ADVANCED MEDTECH'S NEW CORPORATE IDENTITY HIGHLIGHTS ITS AUTHENTIC, INNOVATIVE, AND CUSTOMER-CENTRIC VALUES

The rebrand spotlights its pioneering position as the world's first and only integrated urology platform

Singapore, 28 April, 2022 – Advanced MedTech (AMTH) has unveiled a new corporate identity to complement its vision of “Leading Technology, Improving Lives”, emphasizing its reputation as an innovative global leader in urology.

As a revolutionary medtech leader with a well-established global footprint, AMTH has dedicated itself to delivering disruptive innovations that address growing unmet medical needs across the world. The AMTH vision underscores its commitment to urology through the development of innovative capital equipment, consumables and the building of the largest kidney stone community online.

Positioned as an integrated urology platform, AMTH aims to connect patients with healthcare stakeholders through future-fit, digital-first solutions.

The refreshed corporate identity is bold, modern and focused, and strengthens AMTH's commitment to driving new technological innovations that will enable generations of urologists to deliver the highest quality care.

A patient-first, leading innovator in urology

The new AMTH logo combines its initials “A” and “M” with an upwards arrow to symbolize how AMTH is always leading innovation to develop the urology space, and reinforces its patient-first approach.

Abel Ang, Group Chief Executive of Advanced MedTech, said, “Advanced MedTech is a high growth, scaled, global medtech startup. This new logo signals our urgent ambition to deepen our customer-centric focus as we push the innovation envelope forward to benefit healthcare providers, payers, and most importantly patients.”
